Sojourner Truth (1797 - 1883) was an American abolitionist and women's rights activist. She dedicated her life to speaking out against slavery and advocating for women's rights. Truth is honored today for bringing publicity to the suffrage and abolitionist movements.